

Empowering women through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research since 1902

*Ann Arbor's Third Mah-Jongg Tournament

Thursday, October 26, 2017

1-5 PM at the

Ann Arbor City Club

1830 Washtenaw Ave, 48104

What's Mah-Jongg? A Chinese tile game played around the world and in Ann Arbor (Somewhat like gin rummy with colorful tiles)

What are the game rules?

Stuart Baggaley's modified and simplified rules as taught around Washtenaw County since 2002. (Note: This is not American Mah-Jongg.) (Stuart's Fall 2017 teaching schedule is attached.)

What are the Tournament Rules? These will be provided upon registration.

What is the Early Bird Registration Fee to compete? $12 per person to play or observe

What is the deadline for Early Bird Registration Fee? October 1, 2017.

What is the fee after October 1? $15 per person to register or to enter the Club.

Deadline for all registration: October 16, 2017.

What projects are the proceeds going to support?

"Digital Divas" (To encourage young women to study STEM) - an EMU Project.

What else is available at the Tournament?

Silent Auction, door prizes, and refreshments

To learn more about us, check out: annarbor-mi.aauw.net

To ask a question about us, call (844)973-6287 or (734) 332-0390