

AAUW Ann Arbor

Meet the Board Members

Jenny Hannibal, Corresponding Secretary

What is your current work title and employer or retired from information?

Youth Librarian at the Ypsilanti District Library, Michigan Avenue branch

How many years have you been an AAUW member? Why have you chosen your time to dedicate to AAUW?

I've been in the A2 AAUW for eight or nine years - since we moved here from Seattle. I was fortunate to receive a national AAUW Career Development Grant in 2009 which helped cover the first year of my master's degree in library and information science from the University of Washington. So, when we were thinking of moving to A2 in 2011, I emailed the social chair at the time. She gave me a lovely tour of Ann Arbor while my husband had an interview here. I was also a member of the Seattle AAUW group, along with my mom. She is still a member there.

If you were a crayon, what color would you be?

Glittery periwinkle.

What is a fun or interesting fact about your hometown?

Yakima, Washington had a slogan and a billboard as you're driving into town from the south: "Yakima: The Palm Springs of Washington". Yakima was a great town to grow up in, but it's nothing like Palm Springs. If you've ever driven up that highway, though, the billboard picture will make you long for a sandy beach and palm trees.

If you could only eat 1 meal for the rest of your life, what would it be?

Roasted salmon over salad, like they have in some restaurants, but only if it's Alaskan salmon and legitimately good salad greens (not all iceberg or romaine).
